I am delighted to invite you and your child to our rescheduled Options Evening on 15th June from 6:00 to 7:30pm. This is a crucial time in your child's education as they prepare to choose their courses for Key Stage 4.

During the evening you will be provided with key information outlining the curriculum choices and the options process and deadlines. Afterward, you will have the opportunity to speak directly with Subject Leaders and teaching staff about the courses on offer.

We look forward to welcoming you and supporting your child through this exciting next step.
